Hello, Time Travellers!

Good news! It's getting much sunnier outside, which means there's a lot more time to play. Bad news – I went back in time to find out why spring is called spring and ran into a big, scary spring that was a King. We eventually became pals and said we'd call each other. So, I'm off to give King Spring a ring! Bye!

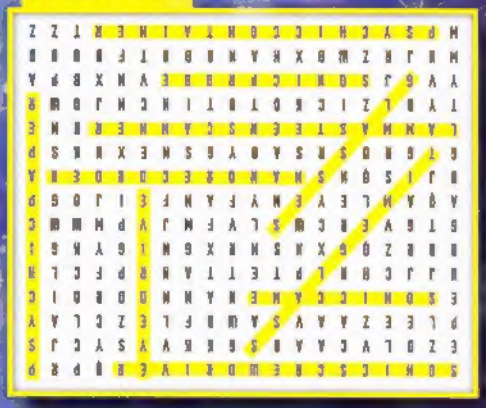
ANSWERS



10 THINGS YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW ABOUT THE SILURIANS

FANTASTIC FACTS ABOUT THIS SCALY SPECIES!

1 The Doctor first met the Silurians beneath Wenley Moor when he was in his third regeneration. They tried to wipe out humanity with a plague, but the Doctor cured it.

2 Silurians aren't aliens! They evolved from Earth reptiles into advanced humanoids, which is why they are sometimes known as Homo reptilia (Latin for 'reptile man').

3 Silurians vanished from history when they spotted a small planet on a collision course with Earth. They put themselves into a deep sleep underground to avoid the disaster.

4 They hadn't meant to sleep for so long, but their technology failed. They woke to find that the planet hadn't crashed into Earth, but went into orbit and became the Moon.

5 Silurians use geothermal currents and special gravity bubbles to travel around under the surface – there's no catching the bus home for them!

A THREE-EYED SILURIAN!

A SALTY SEA DEVIL!

THE MYRKA!

6 Like many other species of reptile, some Silurians have venom glands. They use their long tongues to flick their venom, which can poison or paralyse their unfortunate victims.

7 Silurians in some tribes have a third, red eye on the top of their heads, which they use to operate their technology, to communicate with each other, or as a weapon.

8 When the Doctor met the Silurians beneath Cwmtaff in Wales in the year 2020, he gave the human race a 1,000 year deadline to start sharing the planet with them.

9 Silurian scientific achievements include genetic engineering, which allows them to create dinosaurs and modify deadly creatures, such as the terrifying Myrka.

10 Silurians are not the only race of Homo reptilia. They have underwater cousins known as Sea Devils, who once formed an alliance with the Master!

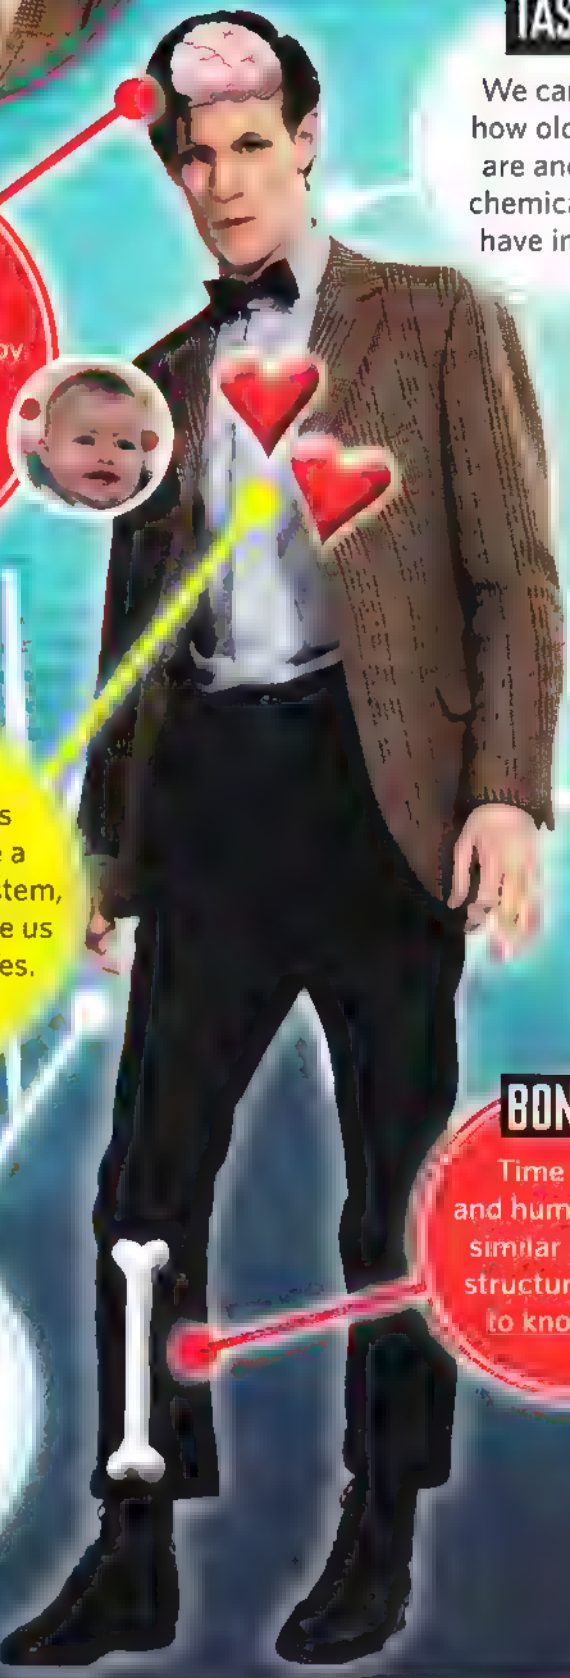
THE DOCTOR'S GUIDE TO TIME LORDS

Let's use my old mate Rory to see which species is the best!

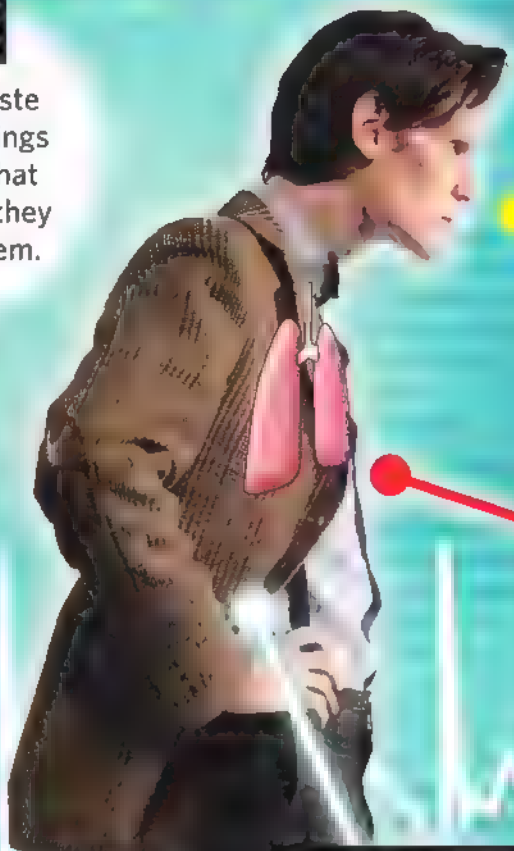
BRAIN

Time Lords can talk thousands of languages, including Ancient Martian and Baby. We also understand the essence of time and space. Plus, we're great at maths!



TASTE

We can taste how old things are and what chemicals they have in them.



HEARTS

Everyone knows Time Lords have a binary vascular system, but does that make us twice as good? Yes. Yes it does.

REGENERATIONS

Time Lords can regenerate 507 times. Humans don't even do it once! It is very ouchy though, so that's understandable.

BONES

Time Lords and humans have similar skeletal structures. Nice to know, eh?

HANDS

I once had my hand chopped off, so I grew a new one. But it caused a part-Time Lord, part-human metacrisis. Whoops!

VS HUMANS

BRAIN

Humans think less [illegible] about their loved ones, EastEnders and chips. [illegible] important.

Ooh, I say!

FACE

I can change mine. Humans are generally stuck with theirs. Boring!

EYES

These things are always leaking! Too happy! Too sad! So humany-wumany!

RESPIRATORY SYSTEMS

I have a respiratory bypass system, so I can go without breathing for long periods of time. Humans can only hold their breath for a minute or so.

HEART

Only one heart, but that's fine. At least you can't catch Chen7!

FEET

Now this is something we share. Feet – two of them! Perfect for running. Which I do a lot. To be fair, so does Rory now that we're friends!

HANDS

Humans are very good at holding pens and sending text messages.

THE VERDICT

Hmm. It's a close one... Ha! Just kidding! Obviously Time Lords are superior to humans, but that's not your fault. Ahhh, to think, I knew humans when they were covered in fur and couldn't bend their thumbs!

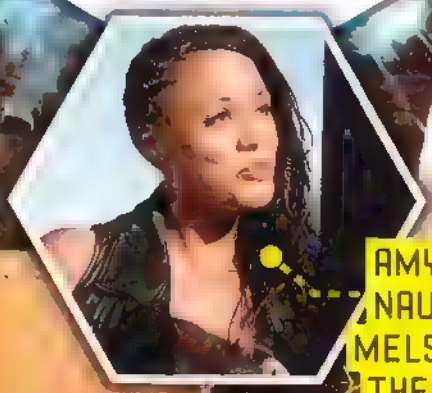
REGENERATION!

THIS WEEK WE LOOK AT THE REGENERATION OF MELODY INTO RIVER

WHO IS SHE?

Melody Pond, later known as Mels and River Song, is Amy and Rory's daughter. River is a child of the TARDIS, so she has some Time Lord DNA. She was kidnapped and raised to kill the Doctor!



AMY AND RORY'S NAUGHTY FRIEND MELS WAS REALLY THEIR DAUGHTER!

HOW SHE DIED

WHERE SHE WAS

LAST WORDS

"SHUT UP, DAD, I'M FOCUSING ON A DRESS SIZE!"

DID YOU KNOW?

We first saw Melody Pond regenerate after she escaped the Silence and the astronaut suit in America in 1969. What a brave girl!

Look, Ponds! Orion! If you join the stars together like dots, it's meant to make a picture of the hunter Orion with his club and bow.
Of course, it looks nothing like him. He actually had 17 heads and four gigantic...
You've told us this one! Now, can we use your sonic screwdriver to see if anything at the buffet is edible for humans?
I didn't build the sonic to test intergalactic sausage rolls. It's clever... it's sophisticated... it's... it's missing!
Somebody's stolen my sonic screwdriver!

We're on a train in space - who would have taken it? You've probably just lost it.
That hurts, Rory. I've never lost anything. Well, apart from that galaxy and my lucky pen. Gosh, I really miss that pen.
The thief must be in this carriage. Amy, you cover that exit and make sure nobody leaves!
Roranicus, you take the other exit. We're going to get to the bottom of this mystery right now!
Ladies, gentlemen, all other sub-categories and insectoids! Excuse me for one moment, please. If I could just have your attention...

Oh. I was expecting a little round of applause there - never mind.
There's a thief among us! One of my most prized possessions has been stolen - and no one is leaving this carriage until I get it back.

SOON. .
Ooh, how exciting! I didn't know a mystery play was included in the price of a ticket on the Orion Express!
What if I need to visit the hypertoilet...?
No, no, no. This isn't a play! The damage my sonic could cause in the wrong hands is astronomical!
Oh, he's very good, isn't he? Terribly convincing!
Let's break this down. The sonic hasn't left my pocket and I haven't left this carriage. The only people that have got close to me are...
The staff!
CRASH!
BANG!
Aha! A Daxzian! I should have known. They've got the stickiest fingers in this quadrant!

DOCTOR, DOCTOR!

DO YOU HAVE A PROBLEM THAT NEEDS SOLVING? THEN ASK THE DOCTOR

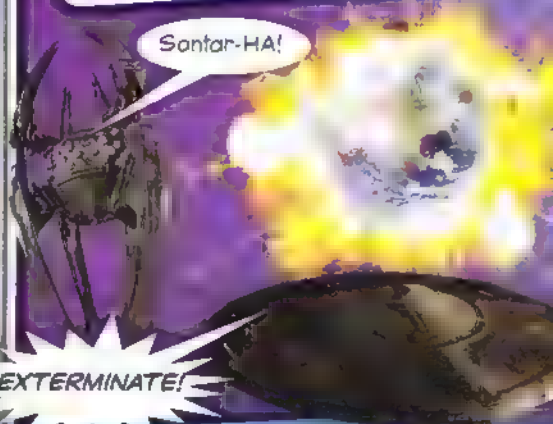
RUNNING MAN!

Dear Doctor,
Are you scared of the scary monsters when they chase you?
Ryan Taylor

THE DOCTOR REPLIES:
Scared? I love being chased! Running is what I do best. I'm also pretty good at jumping and bouncing on a trampoline and monsters are good at bouncing on until Christmas. The scariest monsters are the ones that are waiting for you behind the sofa or under your bed, ready to fry your socks with a phaser beam. At least you know where they are if they're chasing you!

SILLY TIME!

Dear Doctor,
My question is, if time can be rewritten, how come our world has not been destroyed by the Daleks or the Sontarans and so on and so forth?
Aron Richardson



THE DOCTOR REPLIES:
You can't really rewrite something that won't stay still long enough to be written down in the first place. Time likes to do its own thing; jump about, fold back on itself, and twist and turn like a twisty, turny thing. Doesn't make being a time traveller very easy, and I'm miles better at time travelling than Daleks or Sontarans, so it's no wonder they've not managed to mess up Earth history.

DOCTOR DEATH!

Dear Doctor,
What would happen if you did die and could not come back? Would the universe collapse, or are you not that important?
